O'CONOR ON REFORM. NEW YORK, Nov. 9 .- At an annual dinner given by the Mercantile Library association last evening, Charles O'Conor delivered a speech on the progress of the reform movement in the metropolis. He concluded with the sentiment that Gen. Dix and Francis Kernan, were endowed alike with integrity unquestioned, and morals above reproach; they were fit rivals for high stations. We trust they have inaugurated a new era in candidacy [applause]. Addresses were also made by Wm. E. Dodge, Rav. Dr. Potter, Rev.

DISGUSTING SCENE IN COURT

MISSOURI.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

TRIAL OF WOODBUILL & CO. NEW YORK, Nov. 9 .- The case of Woodhull & Claffin brought by L. C. Challis for libel, came up yesterday, and the examination of witnesses has seldom been surpassed for filthiness of details. The room was not balf large enough to contain the immense crowd which filled every seat, crammed the broad aisles, choked the door and even quarrelled for standing places. THE WITNESSES.

The first witness was L. C. Challis whom Howe, counsel for Woodbull, began questioning, descending at once into the most personal matters. The effect of Howe's questioning on the mass of the spectators was shamefully absorbing. When a particularly broad questoin was put revealing the degredation of plaintiff and detendants, the bystanders eagerly crowded their necks forward to catch every syllable and to witness what effect the utterance of such words would have upon her. Woodhull and Claffin bore the ordeal without flinching, frequently leaning forward to suggest new questions. Howe's questions cannot be repeated even in substance. The examination was one HOPEFUL OF A BETTER ADMIN- of the most indecent ever known in an American court room.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN NEW YORK.

AGED COUPLE KILLED THROUGH A MISTAKE.

THE HUR OF THE UNIVERSE IN PLANTS Boston, Nov. 9 .- Very extensive conflagration is now raging at the corner of Summer and Kingston streets, extending east and west on Kingston street and north and south on Summer street. Engines are hauled by hand. LATER.

There is no abatement to conflagration, it is the most extensive fire that has visited Boston for twenty years, being in the solid dry goods pertion of the city. It has extended entire length of Winthorp square. which embraces A. T. Stewart's, J. M. Beebe's, Anderson, Heath & Co.'s, and Houghton, Perkins & Co.'s stores. No estimate of the loss can be given, but reportsuburban fire department has been called upon. The fire is now at its height. The buildings are principally of granite. A northwest wind is prevailing. The press here call it a second Chicago.

THE PIRE STILL RAGING. Boston, Nov. 9, 11 p.m .- The fire is ow within two blocks of the Western Union telegraph office. Operators are taking up their instruments and preparing to vacate. Line men and material have been ordered to Boston from adjoining towns, so that if connection with New York is lost, which now seems very likely, it will probably be soon restored. certainly at an early bour in the morning. if not to-night. The fire has now travelled half a mile through the heart of the business portion of the city, and is spreading with frightful rapidity.

ELEVEN-THIRTY P.M. The fire is now progressing towards Broad street, having swept both sides of Summer street to High street and purchase street. Goods are being removed from stores in every direction in the vicinity of the fire. Engines have been telegraphed for from Providence, Worcester and other places.

MIDNIGHT The fire is moving up Franklin street. and has nearly reached Howley street. Cathedral building, corner of Devenshire and Franklin streets, is on fire, with no hopes of saving it. The flames are also spreading on Federal and Congress streets. Every kind of vehicle is impressed moving goods. The fire has reached the Broad street wharves, South Congress

TWELVE-THIRTY A.M. It is feared the entire area from Sumper street on the south, to Washington street on the west, to Milk street on the porth, to the water on the east, will be laid waste. Pearl street has so far escaped. Heat is intense.

ONE O'CLOCK A. M. The flames have reached Washington street, north of Franklin. The Transcript building is on fire, also all the splendid granite warehouses on Franklin square-Winthrop square and vicinity are burned. Fears are now entertained that the flames will sweep everything to State street, if not further north.

FIRE. NEW YORK, Nov. 9 .- A fire on Twenty-eighth street extending to Twentyseventh street this morning burned Car's stair building factory, Brossington's planing mill, Macy's packing box factory, Martin's machine shop, Welch's planing mill, a large tenement house, a grocery, and a dwelling house. Loss $80,000.

STEAMER KATIE TOTAL LOSS. MEMPHIS. Nov. 9 .- Dispatches received at a late hour last night, state that the steamer Katie sunk at Helena, yesterday morning. She had broken in two and would prove a total loss. She originally cost nearly $200,000, and was partly owned by Capt. Conner, her commander, and was insured for $60,000 in the Cincinnati and KILLED THROUGH A MISTAKE. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 9 .- Last light Avery Plummer and wife, of Ellisbury, Jefferson county, N. Y., were passengers on the western bound night express train, over the Vandalia line, and should have left the train at this point, and taken the morning train for Evansville, whither they were bound, but they failed to obey the directions of the conductor, and he found them on the train after it had started west from here. He then arranged for them to stop at Marshall, the first stopping place, and come back on the next train this way. Before reaching Marshall, the conductor missed the aged couple from the cars and search failed to find them. Men hunted for them throughout the night, and at daylight. found their dead bodies under Clear creek trustle. They had evidently mistaken the slowing of the train customary at this point, for the stopping place, had stepped off and fallen on the jagged rocks fiftyfive feet below the track, meeting instant death.

HORSE PLAGUE.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 9-The horse disease has reached its height, there are no cars running. There is hardly a horse to be seen on the streets.
